

Grande Mountain Villas – Dujiangyan, Sichuan Province, China

Located in Dujiangyan at the picturesque gateway to majestic Mount Qing Cheng, a UNESCO World Heritage site, the 22-acre property will offer 1,000 condominiums suitable as second homes in a scenic area with mild weather and four seasons.

Accessibility: Dujiangyan - Qingcheng Mountain, located in the northwest of Chengdu City, Sichuan Province, is 66km to the downtown, and lies in the one - hour urban circle, enjoying convenient traffic conditions. By Bus: About 1-1½ hours by bus from Chadianzi Bus Station in Chengdu. By Railway: A new express train service now runs from Chengdu's North Train Station, taking about 45 minutes.

Why Choose Dujiangyan? Dujiangyan is conveniently located near the Panda Valley, river rafting, the ancient town of Jiezi, and Mount Emei. This Scenic Area is rich in tourism resources, and is rated as a World Cultural Heritage and World Natural Heritage (Sichuan Giant Panda Sanctuaries), one of the Famous Taoism Mountains in China, a national relic protection unit, a major national scenic spot and also a national dual - AAAAA level scenic spot. The mountain complex is home to both many Taoist and Buddhist temples and sites along the paths that wind up to its peaks. The area is snow-free all year round and is known for its peaceful quiet (this of course excludes the Chinese tourists that flock there on major holidays and the incessantly loud blasts of bus horns along major roadsides).
